Introducing World Missions: A Biblical, Historical, and ...

Introducing World Missions tries to do much in one book. The task of introducing the biblical, historical, and practical aspects of missions is a massive enterprise. The best audience for this book is someone who is a believer who hasn't yet carefully studied cross cultural ministry or the idea of "missions" and would like an overview.

Introducing World Missions: A Biblical, Historical, and ...

This is a good introduction to missions. I enjoyed the first half of the text much more than the second. In the first half, we get a theological and historical treatment of missions, while the second half deals with practical explorations for those called to missions.

How to introduce a world that's alien to the reader. Ask Question 8. 4. I'm writing sort of a space-opera and I was wondering what would be the best way to explain everything about the world to my readers. The story is kind of a political intrigue, and it would be very easy for the reader to get confused. In this universe there is quite a lot of propaganda and government disinformation in 0a.io
