Praise for Jesus Wept "What courage it took for this priest and poet to explore depression in people of faith. Barbara Crafton writes with exquisite nakedness about the futile search for meaning in the meaninglessness of despair. Her own salvation is a beacon to those who believe God means them to suffer in order to understand."

They said to him, Lord, come and see. 35 Jesus wept. 36 So the Jews said, See how he loved him! 37 But some of them said, Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man z also have kept this man from dying? 38 Then Jesus, deeply moved again, came to the tomb.

Why Jesus Wept | Desiring God

Jesus wept after speaking with Lazarus's grieving sisters, Martha and Mary, and seeing all the mourners. That seems natural enough. Except that Jesus had come to Bethany to raise Lazarus from the dead. He knew that in a few short minutes all this weeping would turn to astonished joy, and then tearful laughter, and then worship.

Jesus wept | TRANSFORMING OUR CONFORMING

Jesus wept (John 11:35). Jesus wept because He loved Lazarus (John 11:36). Love brings pain when love is lost. We weep when we lose one we love. We are our relationships. We are not defined by our earthly relationships; ultimately we are defined by who we are in Christ. But our earthly life is bound up with our relationships on earth. And, when we lose someone dear to us we lose part of who we

Jesus wept - why did Jesus weep? - GotQuestions.org

Here, wept is the same word used to describe the weeping of Mary and the others in John 11:33, so we know that Jesus cried aloud in anguish over the future of the city. That future was less than 40 years distant; in AD 70 more than 1,000,000 residents of Jerusalem died in one of the most gruesome sieges in recorded history.
