An indispensable selection of classic texts. Part One is a chronologically arranged anthology of readings from Plato and Aristotle to Erich Auerbach and Susan Sontag. A wide-ranging survey of contemporary critical trends. Part Two presents 10 chapters of writings that represent critical movements from formalism to postmodernism.

The Critical Tradition: Classic Texts and Contemporary Trends

The more context one has, the more one understands, in my experience. I've harped on the critical tradition in Richter, but he has chosen the contemporary essays well, too. They're selected and organized in such a way as to give a sense of a debate taking shape.
