I listened to Through the Zombie Glass, while recovering from the dreadful Influenza A this weekend. I have to say with Natalie Gold's narration and Gena Showalter's story, even the flu was not going to stop me from finishing the sequel to the White Rabbit Chronicles. I absolutely was hooked from the first page to the last page.

Through the Zombie Glass was a wild and fun ride through hardship after hardship. I really felt for Ali, but she kept going and giving her best no matter what. The characters are fantastic, and their dialogue is fun to read. There is tons of action and interesting concepts introduced.

Absolutely recommended. Originally given 4 1/2 stars at IC's Book Haven.
