The latest in Elizabeth George's Thomas Lynley novels, "With No One As Witness", delivers a shocker about 3/5 of the way through the book. It's an event that, quite frankly, you will never anticipate, and it's completely unnecessary to the plot, unless Ms George got tired of the way Lynley's life was going and wanted to be able to move him off in another direction. We'll have to see what

ELIZABETH GEORGE, AUTHOR

Elizabeth George's thriller With No One as Witness is like a sugary Tootsie Pop. You need plenty of time -- and dedication -- before you finally get to the chewy center of this protracted but ultimately juicy serial killer whodunit.
